Numb. 1319

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday July 8. to Thursday July 11. 1678.

Falmouth, July 4.

YEsterday came into this Port a ſmall French Man of War of four Guns, and forty Men, called the St. Anthony, Captain Dellier Commander, belonging to Captain Chaſteinaut, who commands four French Men of War, and two Fireſhips, which this ſmall Frigat left on Monday laſt Cruiſing off of the Lizard.

Lyme, July 6. The 3d inſtant arrived here the Unity of this place, in 24 hours from Morlaix. The ſame day came in the Society likewiſe of this place, in 5 weeks from Cadiz, laden with Wines and Oils; ſhe came thence in company of three Dutch Men of War, and about 28 Sail of Engliſh and Dutch Merchantmen, whom ſhe parted with off of the Southern Cape. The Maſter ſayes, he left Sir John Narborough at Legorn; that the Algierins have not above 3 or 4 ſhips at Sea, the reſt being laid up; that the Spaniards having taken a ſhaloup of their Nation laden with French linnen, had confiſcated the ſhip, and ſold the men to the Gallies.

Portſmouth, July 9. Yeſterday ſailed the Lyon and the Falcon Frigats, with ſeveral Ketches, bound for Flanders, to tranſport thither the Regiment of our Governor Colonel Legge.

Caſchaw in Hungary, June 20. The 16th inſtant we had the firſt Alarm of the approach of the Rebels, who are about 15000 ſtrong, compoſed of ſeveral Nations, as Tartars, Coſſacks, Poles, &c. ſince they have plundered Miſka, and made the ſmall Gariſon of 14 men that were there Priſoners. Part of their Body has beſieged Moldau, and the reſt block up this place. The 18th inſtant they came ſo near, as to ſet fire to one of our Suburbs. We have in Gariſon here the Regiment of Baron Diepenthal. General Wurmb is come with the Troops under his command to Eſperies, and we hope he will in a day or two free us

Genoua, June 29. The 25th inſtant arrived here the French Gallies, and the 27th ſailed again to the Eaſtward, having not been able to agree the matter of Salutes. Sir John Narborough was two days ſince at Legorn, with the Squadron of Men of War under his command. The 24th inſtant arrived here the Maryland Merchant, William Norrington Commander, from Trappany; and this day is come in the Robert and Katherine.

Copenhagen, July 5. Laſt night our Troops attackt the Caſtle of Elſenburg, and all this day we have heard great ſhooting, we doubt not but by the next to tell you that they are Maſters of it. We have nothing new from our Fleet, the Suedes is in Calmar Road. Yeſterday arrived a Veſſel from Norway, which brings not the News we had expected of the taking of Bahus; however the Maſter ſayes, that the Beſiegers had taken a Ravelin, and that in all probability they would be quickly Maſters of the place.

From the Imperial Camp at Stauffen, July 2. There happens frequent skirmiſhes between our Parties. The 28 paſt, Captain Heiſler met with a great many Bakers, about 120 in number, who were going to the French Army, 60 were made Priſoners, and moſt of the reſt killed. The next day Captain Kunits, with a ſmall Party, fell among nine of the Enemies Squadrons, and was put into diſorder by them, but being timely ſeconded by Major Leraw, with four Troops of Light Horſe, and the Duke of Lorrain's Guards, they had their turn to repulſe the Enemy, whom they purſued to their Camp, killed 150. and many Officers. On our ſide we had about 20 killed and wounded, among which latter is the young Prince of Baden. Yeſterday Captain Gregoire beat another French Party near Baſle, kill'd 30, and took 12 Priſoners; on our ſide the Chevalier de Gourcy was killed. The Sieur de Sylveſter is dead of his wounds at Friburg.

Strasburgh, July 4. The Duke of Lorrain having notice of the Enemies deſign upon Rhinfeldt, detached Major General Starenberg, and the Baron de Mercy, to cover that important place; and they have made ſo great diligence, that we have an Account of their arrival there; and that having put ſome Men into the Town, they advanced towards the Count de Choiſeul, and the Marquis de Boufflars, who were forced to retire. Two thouſand Foot, and 400 Horſe, of the Elector of Mentz, are arrived in this Neighborhood, and to morrow continue their march to join the Imperial Army.

Cologne, July 6. The demand made by the Moſt Chriſtian King of the 40000 Crowns ſeized by the Imperialiſts, during the holding of the Aſſembly here for the Treaty of Peace, hath put our Magiſtrates into ſome perplexity, not knowing how to free themſelves of this matter; for as they are on one ſide very unwilling to pay that money, of which they had no advantage, ſo on the other they find the French are reſolved to purſue this pretenſion very vigorouſly: As yet they have not returned any Anſwer to the Letters the Mareſchal de Schomberg writ to them on this Subject, but in the mean time the Trumpeter that brought them is defrayed here at the publick charge. The laſt Letters we have from Alſace are of an old date, and therefore will not trouble you with what they contain, ſeeing you will have freſher Advice from thence by other wayes.

Ditto, July 8. Our Magiſtrates have anſwered to the Letter ſent hither by the Mareſchal de Schomberg, demanding the payment of the 40000 Crowns; that as the ſaid Monies were not ſeized by any fault of theirs, they cannot look upon themſelves to be concerned in the matter, and much leſs reſponſible for the ſaid monies. The Mareſchal de Schomberg has demanded of the States of Fuliers 240000 Crowns, and in default thereof threatens to attack the City of Fuliers, which is at preſent provided with a very good Gariſon.

From the Mareſchal de Crequi's Camp at Altingen, July 11. You will already have had an Account of the Action which paſſed the 6th inſtant near Rhinfeldt, which was ſo much to our advantage. This day we are